1. You, Prince of (all) ages, You, Christ, King of the nations; we confess You as the one Judge of (all) hearts and minds.

2. The procession bows low in heaven to adore You and praise You with hymns. We Your flock call you supreme King of all.

3. Christ, peace-making Prince, subdue rebellious minds, and in Your love, gather together in one flock those wandering astray.

4. For this, with arms outstretched, You hung, bleeding, from the Tree, and the cruel spear that pierced You showed a Heart blazing with fire.

5. For this, You are hidden on our altars under the symbol of bread and wine, pouring out salvation for (Your) children from (Your) pierced side.

6. Glory to You, Jesus, who temper all things with love, with the Father and the loving Spirit through endless ages. Amen.
